Professor Hanga with Romanian personalities:

Some personalities that inspired him deeply:

- I'm glad you have a very developed sense of humor, and you know how to combine humor with a more sober atmosphere.

- The pauses for jokes are very important because they recreate the student and allow him to be alert again once they are over.

- Someone once said " you learn from everyone, but a real teacher is the only one who teaches you how to learn"

- I like the course and I also like the teacher "to the maximum"

- I think he's the only teacher I could listen to for hours without getting bored.

- I am proud to have such a teacher, a leader in Roman law and this motivates me to learn and maybe I will even be able to follow in your footsteps.

- Professor Hanga is the ideal teacher I would like (if possible) to have in all courses.

- We love you, Mr. Hanga!

- Never die because you are a teacher loved and appreciated to the superlative.

- All I would like is for all teachers to be like you. Thank you for existing!
